Session 1 - 2024

January 27th – July 31, 2024

Enrollment Requirements & Dates

Enrollment requires a High School diploma or GED.

Enrollment closes 1 week prior to each session start date

Session 1 January 27th, 2024

Attendance Policy

Attendance is 100% including makeup. Students are allowed to miss 3 classes, but all classes must be made up by watching the replay and taking a short quiz. This is to be completed for all missed classes. (Maximum of three absences)

Extenuating circumstances will be reviewed by your instructor.

Grading/Assessment Policies

Progress is measured by:

- Self-reflection at the end of each class weekend
- Case studies
- Clinical reports
- Online quizzes
- Online exams
- 1-on-1 meetings with instructor
- Saturday group meetings

All course work will be assessed on a pass/fail basis.

Students are required to complete and receive a passing score of 100% on all academic assignments and quizzes to maintain good academic standing. The student can retake quizzes or repeat homework as many times as needed.

The final exam, is a pass/fail. If the student fails the final, they will be given feedback on what they need to fix and they can resubmit their final exam until they pass.

The school reserves the right to place a student on a leave of absence if the student falls so far behind in reading and written assignments that they interfere with the learning environment of the other students.

This course would allow a week, at most two weeks to be on a leave of absence for the student's ability to keep up. All work can be made up and done remotely. However, if the student misses too many classes, they will be asked to repeat the course in the next session.

Students will receive a written warning if they are in danger of being asked to withdraw.

Policies & Conduct

Sexual Harassment Policy

IORH is committed to maintaining a learning and work environment free from sexual harassment. The school will not tolerate behavior of sexual nature (from a faculty member, tutor, employee, or other student or students) that interferes with an individual learning, or create an intimidating, also, or offensive working or learning environment. Complaints should be submitted to the Director.

Non-discrimination policy

IORH does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, or sexual orientation.

Code of Conduct

Students are to conduct themselves with respect, dignity, and professionalism at all times while enrolled in the program.

- Becoming a homeopathic practitioner requires us to remain in curiosity and wonder. We approach our learning together in this way as we remain open, there are no wrong questions, this is essential for a growth mindset and a spiritual learning environment.
- The first remedy is love. This is how we approach each other and our patients with unconditional love and presence.
- All patient interviews and documentation, whether live or on video tape, are confidential. We speak with our patients and about our patients with the utmost respect.
- We talk to the person, not about the person when we have a concern.
- Students may be asked to withdraw for egregious, unethical, or unprofessional conduct, or if their classroom behavior significantly interferes with the learning environment for other students.
- Cell phone use, including texting, is prohibited during lectures and clinical instruction.
- The IORH name and logo may only be used with permission and is not to be used in student marketing materials pre or post certification.
- Before you speak, consider if it is true, helpful, necessary, and kind (T.H.I.N.K).

Refund Policy

If your application is rejected, you will receive a full refund of all tuition, fees, and other charges. You will be entitled to a full refund of tuition, fees, and other charges if you give notice that you are canceling your enrollment within 5 days of being accepted into the school or program

This five-day refund policy applies regardless of when the program starts. If you give notice more than 5 days after being accepted in to the program, but before the start of the program (or first lesson for an online distance education program), you will receive a refund of all tuition, fees, and other charges minus 15%, up to $50, of the total cost of the program.

If you withdraw after the start of your program and it has been more than 5 days after you were accepted into your program, you will receive a pro-rated refund of the entire cost of your program based on your last day of attendance. You will be provided a prorated tuition, fees, and other charges refund minus your initial application fees, up to $50, and minus the less or 25% of the total tuition or $100. Proration is based on whether your program is term-based or clock hours and how much of the program you have completed.

If your program is term-based, the completion rate is the number of calendar days from the first date of the program through your last documented date of attendance divided by the length of the program. The completion rate is calculated to the second decimal point (.XX).

If your program is clock-hour based, the completion rate is the number of clock hours you actually attended divided by the number of clock hours in the program. The completion rate is calculated to the second decimal point (.XX)

If you withdraw from your program after 75.00% of the program has completed, you are not entitled to a refund of tuition, fees, and other charges.

You will receive written notice acknowledging your withdraw request within 10 business days after receipt of the notice and you will receive a refund of any tuition, fees, and other charges within 30 business days of receipt of your withdrawal. Any mailed notice is effective of the date of the postmark if sent by mail or the day it has been hand delivered to the school. Notice to withdraw may also be given by email or verbally, including a voicemail, to a school official (defined by school's Student Right to Cancel policy). [insert school's policy who is a school official]

If you do not withdraw in writing or contact the school about your absence, and you have not attended your program or contact the school about your absence for 14 consecutive days, you will be considered to have withdrawn from the school as of your last date of attendance. Your school is responsible for sending you a written notice of cancellation if you are withdrawn for failing to attend to your last known address. The confirmation from the school must state that the school has withdrawn you from enrollment, and if this action was not the student's intent, the student must contact the school.
